

A female case with misdiagnosis of hemophilia A who underwent total knee arthroplasty; A case report

Alireza Bari<sup>1</sup> and Hassan Mansouritorghabeh<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup>Affiliation not available

September 3, 2020

Abstract

A female with hemophilia had undergone bilateral total knee arthroplasty. She had a history of numerous hemorrhages. After further investigations, the diagnosis of von Willebrand disease type 2N confirmed. The von Willebrand disease, rare bleeding disorders, and severe platelet disorders are the differential diagnoses for hemophilia A

Hosted file

A female with misdiagnosis of hemophilia A.doc available at <https://authorea.com/users/339638/articles/478979-a-female-case-with-misdiagnosis-of-hemophilia-a-who-underwent-total-knee-arthroplasty-a-case-report>