

Figure 1: A) a CT scan sagittal view with I/V & oral contrast showing huge heterogenous hypodense mass originating from the pancreas, the body and the tail is replaced by the mass reported as: measuring 23 cm in craniocaudal, 15 in transverse plan and 11 cm in anteroposterior plan. B) Coronal section demonstrates the pancreatic mass compressing the left kidney. No evidence of intraabdominal or pelvic lymph node enlargement.

Figure 1A

B

B