

Figure 1. Family 1, father.

Referred due to failure of a fixed dental prosthesis that resulted in functional problem with lack of chewing function. Orthognathic surgery former performed in 1988. Due to Axenfeld-Riegers Syndrome multiple agenesis, eight teeth missing. Treatment: Bone augmentation and simultaneously placed dental implants. Dental rehabilitated with a fixed dental prosthodontics. 2 year follow up. A: Orthopantomography prior bone augmentation. Arrow show former wire osteosynthesis after orthognathic surgery. B: Implant placement, with simultaneous left side lateral sinus augmentation, autologous bone from the mandible. C: Orthopantomography 1 year follow up after installation of fixed dental prosthesis.